

Reedy Battery Bars Now Available In Bulk Packs!

For greater consumer value, Reedy is happy to announce that the #651 high-current silver-plated copper battery bars are now available in packages containing 30 bars. This bulk pack contains enough bars to assemble four 6-cell battery packs. The serious racer who purchases and assembles multiple battery packs at one time will love the simplicity that this bulk pack offers.

For retailers that prefer to sell items in their bulk bins, a 100-bar package is now available. One thing is certain: everyone will enjoy the greater value and lower unit price when buying in bulk!

Reedy Battery Bars are created with the finest pure copper raw materials and silver plating for minimum resistance and corrosion prevention.
